

TEEN ADVISOR APPLICATION

Music4CHIEF Board of Directors

Service Term: August - July

Music4CHIEF, Inc., is a music education nonprofit organization in Forsyth County, Ga., recognizing the importance of music education as a positive influence in a teenager's life. In addition to financing private music lessons for at-risk and financially-disadvantaged middle and high school students, Music4CHIEF also offers a yearly need-based grant awarded to one Forsyth County high school marching band student.

The Music4CHIEF Board of Directors consists of six volunteer members: three adult members and three teen advisors. Teen advisors are given the opportunity to sit on the nonprofit board of directors for the period of one year (August through July). At the successful completion of service, teen advisors will receive a "Certificate of Service" in appreciation of the contribution made to the organization.

Music4CHIEF Teen Advisor DUTIES:

- attend and actively participate in board meetings
- participate in the development, planning and execution of nonprofit fundraising events
- co-manage the Music4CHIEF social media accounts and website
- promote the mission to bring music education to at-risk and low-income Forsyth County teens

Music4CHIEF Teen Advisor BENEFITS:

- leadership experience
- social media and website management experience
- event planning and networking experience through fundraisers
- community service hours
- the reward of giving back to other teens in the community

REQUIREMENTS

- Forsyth County high school student (9th, 10th, 11th, 12th grade), or homeschool equivalent
